Website Cookies Policy

What are Cookies – Cookies are created when a browser, e.g Internet Explorer, Chrome, Safari, loads a particular website and can be placed on your computer or mobile device. These are small text files containing information on the user's preferences whilst navigating a website and are used to enhance the user's experience during a visit to a website.

It is possible to disable Cookies in your browser. For information on how to do this please refer to the relevant settings information for the browser you use.

Continuing to use this website without disabling Cookies in your browser, you agree to our use of Cookies as described below.

How we use Cookies

King's Wood School does not use Cookies to gather or store personal information. We do however collect personal information through completed feedback forms entered through our Contact Us page.

This information which you have sent to us by completing the feedback form, is dealt with by designated School personnel dedicated to fulfil your requirements and it is not passed to third parties.

King's Wood School also gathers website use information through Google Analytics. This is a statistical exercise to view frequent visits to website pages and which sites have referenced the user to this website.

This information does not contain any personal information and it is only available to the website administrators.

More information on Google Analytics can be found here

Use of Links

Throughout our web pages, we provide links to other servers which may contain information of interest to our readers. We take no responsibility for, and exercise no control over, the organisations, views, or accuracy of the information contained on other servers.
